Restrictions for the Use of Voriconazole

Drug Information Center
C-113 Chandler Medical Center, (859) 323-5320

The use of voriconazole is restricted to the following criteria:

1) a documented need for broad-spectrum antifungal therapy (if fluconazole is not an option) AND
2) the patient has renal dysfunction or is at high risk for renal dysfunction (defined as SrCr>2.5 or doubled from baseline, OR patient is receiving concomitant therapy with aminoglycosides, tacrolimus, cyclosporine, or cyclophosphamide)

OR

3) For use in bone marrow transplant or solid organ transplant patients

Approved by P&T Committee: 4/04 | Posted on: 4/04 | For Internal University of Kentucky Chandler Medical Center Use Only